Expanding the options for learning about our nature. The more we explore together the stronger our community is. I was amazed to hear about borrowing IPAD and taking it out to identify items in nature. More educational programs explaining how to use them would be great.

possibly upgrading the children's area outside. Our Granddaughter loves to go to the library and play outside. Also check out books and we read outside. There isn't many places here for the children to play and the library is wonderful. Thank you.
