

Red Feather Lakes Mountain Library District

Freedom to Read and View Statement

Reviewed and Approved by the Red Feather Mountain Library District Board of Trustees, November 9, 2022

The freedom to read and view is a constitutionally designed right.

Within this framework, Red Feather Lakes Community Library offers materials that is representative of constituent and visitor interests across a broad spectrum of ideas and ideals. Not all held items are of interest or intended for all cardholders but rather towards a balance of the user's opportunity of choice.
