

Book and Material Donation Policy

Revised and approved by the Red Feather Mountain Library District Board of Trustees on July 22, 2015.

Red Feather Mountain Library District encourages and appreciates the donation of materials to the library.

However, not all materials are appropriate for the library or will be accepted by the library. The Library Director makes the determination on whether any donation will be accepted in whole or in part.

Those items deemed suitable will be incorporated within the library's collection. The disposition of other donated materials (in order of precedence) are The Friends of the Red Feather Lakes Community Library for fundraising through used book sales; other appropriate organizations; recycling and/or permanent removal.

Items donated to Red Feather Mountain Library District become the property of the District and the future use and management of those items is unconditional, including the eventual disposal of material. No special arrangements, shelving, marking or display is permitted outside of limited or temporary activities approved by the Library Director,
